DONALD MACDONALD IS RETURNED WINNER OF THE SPARTANBURG SELLING STAKES.

Aided by Butwell's Horsemanship, Holland Racer Scores Easy Victory Over John Furlong and Busy —Controversy Over Poolroom Service.

Charleston, S. C., February 19.—The Spartanburg Selling Stakes, value $1,000, one mile and seventy yards, today, engaged three of the best racers here in Donald Macdonald, John Furlong and Busy. Each of the trio had a large following, with the Tennessee Stable representative having the most call. Donald Macdonald proved his superior at all stages, however, and won by two lengths. John Furlong just as handily beat Busy. Butwell gave Donald Macdonald a gilt-edged ride today and this was an extensive factor in the horse's success. Threatening weather did not affect the patronage to any noticeable extent, for a fairly large crowd again witnessed the sport. From a speculative standpoint, the public suffered. The victories of Donald Macdonald, Rossburg, Viley and Spindle were attended with profit to the layers.

J. W. May uncovered his best youngster in Frances M., which met a band of juveniles in the opener. So confident were her connections that the filly would score that they practically fell over each other in their eagerness to place their money, which resulted in the filly going to the post favorite, after having opened at 4 to 1. She was not the "good thing" supopsed, for she had to be driven out to the last ounce to beat Ada, which was coupled with Dainty Mint as the G. W. J. Bissell entry.

Premier, which former jockey Tommy Burns recently disposed of, was the beaten favorite of the fifth race. He failed to get any portion of the purse, Viley winning as his rider pleased from Miss Jonah and Mama Johnson. For some reason Spindle was not backed in the closing dash, though he appeared to hold his opposition safe on form. He made good after disposing of Claque.

Because of a misunderstanding existing between the track management and Mont Tennes, who is said to be manager of a Chicago concern that furnishes poolrooms with racing information, a rigid censorship on all wire matter has been established and afternoon press mater is subjected to a delay of fifteen minutes. It is said that the present trouble grew out of Mr. Tennes' insistence that Manager Pons prevent as far as possible newspaper correspondents from sending out results during racing hours. This Manager Pons emphatically refused to do. It is also said that the track and Mr. Tennes had an agreement under which the latter was to pay a stipulated sum for the service during a certain period and that this amount was to be increased later. When Mr. Pons demanded the increase, according to report, Mr. Tennes refused to allow it, also contending that the track people had violated the original agreement by failure to prevent news reports from being sent to the various newspapers. Manager Pons is determined to prevent the Chicago news bureau from getting any of the reports of the racing or such other advance information as may serve the poolrooms in their business until the stipulated price set by Manager Pons is paid. Several New York parties have opened negotiations with Manager Pons for the service.

After betting on the fifth race had been going on for some time it was discovered that Miss Primity was not in the paddock. She was ordered scratched by the officials and all money wagered on her was refunded.

J. O. Talbott has secured first call on jockey Skirvin for the remainder of the meeting.

Frank Morrow, one of starter Milton's assistants, received word from Lexington this morning of the death of his mother, whose demise occurred last night. He left for his home tonight to attend the funeral.

Jockeys Taplin and VanDusen received notification from New York this morning that the Jockey Club had granted them licenses and both will be seen in the saddle shortly.

George W. Langdon left hurriedly for New York this morning. He received a telegram from James Fitzsimmons to the effect that the three-year-old filly Briar Path was dangerously ill at Gravesend. Mr. Langdon probably will return south to arrange for the shipment to Norfolk of the two-year-olds he purchased here.

The Palmetto Park track was in good condition this morning, when the following work-outs took place:

GENERAL SANFORD'S STURDY LOVE FOR THE THOROUGHBRED, AUGUST BELMONT'S WONDERFUL COLLECTION OF BREEDING STOCK, AND OTHER TOPICS DISCUSSED BY JUDGE BURKE

New York, February 15.—It was with great regret that we heard of the death of that splendid old sportsman, Gen. Stephen Sanford, which took place at his home on the night of the 13th. He was eighty-seven years old, and so it could not be expected that he could live much longer. What a great aid he was to high-class racing may never be known, but I have been told that he and his son John were able to influence the votes of two state senators in behalf of the sport's defense, and that their time and money were at the command of the Jockey Club and its friends in all matters where they could be of use. Race-goers at Saratoga never will forget the uproarious enthusiasm which always greeted the frequent successes of the "purple and gold stripes" of the Sanford horses, and all day long and every day during the season the veteran breeder was the center of an admiring throng which surrounded him as he sat with his son and daughter-in-law in their box immediately behind the judges' stand. There was no hypocrisy about General Sanford. He believed in racing as a means of improving the breed. He condemned in unmeasured terms the short-sighted men of his own party (he was a stalwart Republican) who played to the galleries when they denounced what they called the "gambling" which went on at the race track. The success of General Sanford as a breeder of fine, stalwart, rugged horses, able to run fast as well as go far, has become a bye-word all over the United States. When he announced a sale of young horses in the summer of 1911 to be held at Buffalo in July of that year, I know of some racing men who had traveled from California expressly to buy some of them, but who found at the sale that competition was too keen for their somewhat limited purses, and so they went back without any.

As a matter of fact, too, the long-continued success of the Hurricana Stud, situated about an hour's ride from Saratoga, proved that breeding of good horses is not limited to any one state or locality. To be sure, there was a solid foundation laid when the Messrs. Sanford spent money lavishly for English stallions and broodmares some years ago. I know that they paid $30,000 for Laureate, a brother to the well-known St. Leger winner Petrarch, and that at the sale of the first August Belmont's stud in 1891 they paid $20,500 for the mare Viola. They gave $25,000 for Clifford and $30,000 for Potomac, $12,000 for La Tosca, and for Lady Primrose $13,000. You recall the racing matinees which were for years features of the Hurricana Stud. How the whole town of Amsterdam was invited to the outings on each national holiday, saw the whole stable of racers in contests under punishment at General Sanford's private track, and a few weeks later hundreds of them would go to the Saratoga races, primed with information based on what they had seen on the Fourth of July, and bet with success on the Sanford horses.

Another side of the picture was when the country, influenced by hypocrites, sent to the Legislature representatives who were opposed to racing, and then General Sanford and his son shut down on the matinees and thousands were deprived of their pleasure. A good many years ago General Sanford paid a large price for a horse known as Gen. Phillips, by Glenelg. He was a first-class racer on the flat, but the Messrs. Sanford soon devoted him to cross-country racing, of which they were all exceedingly fond. In fact, they owned at one time another crack jumper, Chimneysweep, and at about that period both John Sanford and his brother William took part in a moonlight steeplechase at Newport, particulars of which John Sanford once wrote me for publication. Long before he became a State Racing Commissioner, John Sanford was known as a heavy bettor, but as it became apparent that plunging was not a good thing for the welfare of the sport, he discontinued his wagers. "Jack" McGinnis was his commissioner and in that capacity earned a lot of money. Mr. Sanford also wagered heavily at one time on presidential elections and George Wheelock was his accredited commissioner in those transactions. Mr. Sanford always backed the candidates of his party—Republican.

While on the subject of high-priced, valuable horseflesh, I venture to assert that what is conceded by breeding experts to be the most costly collection of stallions, broodmares and horses in training in all the world, is as yet the property of August Belmont, who now owns 190 head in three countries, soon to be increased by at least sixty additional foals due before the end of May. How much longer Mr. Belmont will see fit to maintain intact his famous Nursery Stud in Kentucky no doubt depends upon the demand in this country for thoroughbreds. Should that demand decrease, possibly also this famous home of the thoroughbred may be devoted to other uses as has been the case with many other blue grass farms.

Mr. Belmont has recently had published for private circulation an elaborate catalog of all his thoroughbred possessions. The book comprises 242 pages of finely-printed paper, embellished with photographs taken by Mr. Belmont himself, not only in Kentucky, but also at his French stud. Numerous scenes of the Nursery in Kentucky and of the Haras de Villers at Foucarmont are incorporated within the maroon-enclosed pages, and a perusal of this miniature stud bok, with its famous stallions and mares, is full of sentimental recollections of the great days of the turf for the past thirty years.

Just how much money Mr. Belmont's turf possessions represent, cannot be accurately stated, but the same lot of stallions and mares would five years ago be estimated as worth a million dollars, and, as a matter of fact, taking into account the remarkable successes achieved on the English, French, American and Canadian turf in the last three seasons by Nursery-bred horses, there has been an increase rather than a decrease in the value of Mr. Belmont's stallions and mares, and if they were all to be sold under the hammer any time this year in England or France, it is asserted by experts that sensational prices would be realized. This being conceded, turfmen are hoping that something may happen in the matter of legislation which will keep this superb collection in America.

The most remarkable feature of Mr. Belmont's stud is the predominance of the get of the $150,000 stallion Rock Sand. Though that horse is no longer the property of the chairman of the Jockey Club, there are in existence, the property of Mr. Belmont, not less than seventy sons and daughters of that famous stallion. Not only that, but there are twenty-seven mares now in Kentucky and five in France all in foal to him, so that for generations to come there will be an abundance of the blood of this good young horse available to American breeders. In addition there are thirteen yearlings by Rock Sand at the Nursery Stud, so that in all, of the 250 head which will be owned by Mr. Belmont at the close of the foaling season of 1913 (about May next), about forty per cent. are by Rock Sand.

Now that Rock Sand has been expatriated, Mr. Belmont's stud is headed with the stallion Hastings, at present in his twentieth year, and whose son Hawthorn is a formidable candidate for the highest three-year-old honors. In twelve years the get of Hastings have won more than $900,000. Fair Play, one of the best sons of Hastings, is also at the stud, and this year his two-year-olds will appear for the first time. One well-liked one is now in England. Recently Mr. Belmont said that his most promising two-year-old for 1913 is by Fair Play, Singleton, by St. Simon; Trap Rock, brother to the St. Leger winner, Tracery; Ferole, by Orme, and Factor, by Fume, son of Henry of Navarre, comprise the other stallions in Kentucky. Factor is devoted to breeding polo ponies.

The mares at the Nursery are: Annot Lyle, Astoria, Beldame, Black Poplar, Bon Coeur, Chinkara, Crossways, Dance Spirit, Delusion, Dissembler, Donna de Oro, Donna Mia, Dragnet, Fairy Gold, Felicity, Ferment, Fides, Fizgig, Flittermouse, Genevieve, Golden Sand, Gwendolyn, Haute Roche, Hautesse, Lack-a-Daisy, Lady Languish, Lady Madge, Lady Paramount, Lady Rayon, Lady Violet, Linda Stone, Lucky Lass, Lucy Cross, Madcap, Mem Sahib, Merry Token, Miss Hanover, Nineveh, Octoroon, Orienta, Peccadillo, Pocketpiece, Pyramid, Queen of Trent, Retained II., St. Agnes, St. Eudora, St. Priscilla, Sand Dune, Sans Gene, Selina D., Shilda, Souriante, Souveraine, Sprite, Tapestry, Tea's Over, Tiptoe, Toastrack, Toggery, Toscana, Toucan, Turquoise, Typical, Velocity and Woodbine.

In France Mr. Belmont's stallions are Ethelbert and Flint Rock. His mares are: Amicitia (dam of Amoureux), Anodyne, Bachellette, Ballot Bred, Bivouac, Boudoir, Bridlepath, Dame Beauty, Donna Henrietta, Drama, Dulcibella, Fargone, Fidenia, Field Mouse, Fond Hopes, Golden View, Half Sovereign, Hour Glass, King's Favorite, Lady Amelia, Lady of the Vale, Lady of the Valley Lady Rosemary Qu' Elle est Belle, Lady Viola, Luckstone, Maze, Misgivings, Oriza, Prickly Pear, Sandwich, Six O'Clock, Topiary (dam of Tracery), and White Thorn (dam of Hawthorn).

At Chantilly, France, Mr. Belmont has twenty-one horses in training under the care of Richard Carter, Jr., who was exceptionally successful with the stable in 1912. These, except Relic, were all bred in America, but foaled in France. Their names are Relic, Curieux, Orage II., Amiral V., Bavard III., Brigande, Amitie, Beauclere II., Donna Bella, Dramatiste, Kincade, La Valliere IV., Mais III., Miette, Roxanna, Sibylle II., Vol au Vent V., Mille Pardons, Orphee, Vaillant V. and Vulcain VI.

At Newmarket, under the care of John Watson, Mr. Belmont has the following seven horses in training: Tracery, Monotone, Golden Rock, Don de Roca, Black Walnut, Sandglow and Yuba Bill.

At the Benning race course, Washington, Mr. Belmont's string for racing on this side of the ocean comprises twenty-seven head, as follows: Priscillian, Merry Task, Belamour, Mission, Rock View, Belray, Top Hat, Sandvale, Mahubah, Foolscap, Ha' Penny, Defendum, Sandbar, Flittergold, Stonehenge, Nicety, Single Ray, Tradesman, Fathom, Violet Ray, Checkmate, Olympia, Misplay, Flitanay, Tea Enough, Crosslun, and a filly by Scintillant II.—Flaxenhair. The horse Watervale, is expected to join the stable shortly.

I recently heard a well-authenticated story of how Mr. Thomas F. Ryan missed becoming the owner of the horse Fitz Herbert. It was while the horse was under Frank M. Taylor's care at Gravesend, in the month of January, 1910, soon after it was announced that John E. Madden had purchased him from S. C. Hildreth. The sale had created a furore and the stable had been over-run with visitors eager to get a look at the $40,000 horse. At last trainer Taylor became tired of this and, on going to town one day, he told his stalwart negro stable man that if anyone came down to see Fitz Herbert, to show another horse, as he did not desire to interrupt the crack at or between meal times. There appeared unannounced one day at the stable an elderly man of no particular distinction, in the opinion of the stable man. He said, without giving his name, that he would like to look at Fitz Herbert. The negro, bearing in mind the orders of his employer, opened a box in which was a big, gross two-year-old and told the visitor that this was Fitz Herbert. The stranger, who was Thomas F. Ryan, did not think much of the horse which was shown him as the one famous all over the country, and left the course unimpressed. Thus he missed owning the great racer, for, if he had seen the real Fitz Herbert in his stall, he could not fail to have been enamored with him and he would have raced in his colors, for he wanted to buy him and when he retired he would have gone to Mr. Ryan's enormous Oak Ridge Farm in Virginia, instead of being in France, as he is now. It was four months later, after Fitz Herbert had won a race at Belmont Park in Mr. Madden's colors, trained by Frank Taylor, that "Sam" Hildreth, tormented at having let go his "mascot," re-purchased him from Mr. Madden at an advance of $5,000, and in the fall of 1911, when Hildreth had come down from Canada after a disastrous betting campaign there, he sold his whole stable to Charles Kohler. It will always be a source of keen disappointment to Americans that Fitz Herbert could not be trained and got fit to show the Frenchmen what sort of a horse he was. I understand, however, that even though he is now at the stud there, he is not unsound and may again be trained. Let us hope so.

JOSEPH J. BURKE.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The name of Tears and Smiles has been conferred by H. P. Whitney upon his two-year-old chestnut colt by Broomstick—Whimsical.

Jockeys T. Rice and G. Archibald are to sail from New York within a day or two for Germany, where they have lucrative engagements for the coming season.

Edwin Gaylord, wealthy Denver mining man and former owner of several well-known race horses, is to be married this week to Mrs. Florence Burke, of Cripple Creek, Col.

The South Carolina Legislature will adjourn this week without having taken action on the bill designed to legalize the pari-mutuel method of speculation in connection with racing.

At the annual meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club the following officers were re-elected: Schuyler L. Parsons, president; F. K. Sturgis, vice-president; Frank R. Hitchcock, treasurer; V. M. Schaumburg, secretary. These, with John M. Bowers, H. C. Bell and W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., will compose the executive committee.

Mr. H. B. Duryea's colt Bugler has been sent from Chantilly to England. Sweeper II. will probably follow him soon, having no engagements in France, while in England he is in the Chester Vase at Chester, Hardwicke Stakes at Ascot and other valuable events.

In the opinion of Secretary J. C. F. Merrill, of the Chicago Board of Trade, insurance, speculation and gambling are in the same category. In an address in an Evanston church he is reported as saying: "A man who pays $50 for a $5,000 policy on his house, the speculator who places his money on a commodity which he expects to rise in price, and the gambler who bets on a horse race or boxing match, are all on the same basis. But speculation and insurance are condoned by society as a benefit to humanity. Speculation is necessary to handle the vast amount of products that comes from the soil in this country."

WANT MEETING EXTENDED

HORSEMEN TO PRESENT PETITION TO DIRECTORS OF JUAREZ TRACK TODAY.

Ask That Racing Be Continued Two Weeks Beyond Scheduled Date for Closing of Season—Old Ben Only Favorite to Take a Purse.

El Paso, Tex., February 19.—The Juarez card today was of the ordinary variety. One lone favorite scored, this being Old Ben in the two-year-old race. Shadrach, which has shown a bad disposition in several of his starts here, bolted through the fence before going a sixteenth of a mile. Jockey Loftus luckily escaped with minor bruises, but the horse was pretty well cut up about the chest.

Jockey Kederis carried off the riding honors by piloting two winners. He is riding in excellent form at present.

The most exciting race of the afternoon was the fourth, in which Chas. Goetz and Sir Alvescot engaged in a spirited contest from the head of the stretch to the finish. They alternated in the lead until the final stride, when Sir Alvescot outgamed the other horse to get the decision by a narrow margin.

Walter Heath purchased John Louis this morning from D. Ford, who acquired him recently by the claiming process from J. H. Mead.

There was considerable changing in the personnel of the bookmakers at the usual cut-in in the ring. J. S. Sullivan and John Doyle took stands, while Tiffany Wolfgang and Frank Gossett dropped out.

A. C. McCafferty claimed Suffragist out of the fourth race for $625. Mr. McCafferty's entry in the race was Frazzle.

The horsemen here have a petition with over 200 signatures that they will present tomorrow to the Jockey Club Juarez directors at their annual meeting, requesting that the meeting be extended two weeks beyond March 16, which has been tentatively considered as the closing date.

Jockey Cotton was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the barrier.

The riders for tomorrow's amateur race will be as follows: Coed, Capt. Frank Halstead; Lily Paxton, Capt. J. M. Burroughs; Lee Harrison II., Capt. John H. Louis; Don Enrique, Mr. James Butler, Jr.; Blaze B., Lieut. K. G. Eastman; Faneuil Hall, Lieut. J. A. Barry; Palma, Mr. Pierce Butler; Duke of Bridgewater, Mr. C. A. Beers.

ITEMS FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., February 19.—Jockey Walter Taylor, who fell ill at Juarez and was in a hospital at El Paso for over a month, arrived home today. He expects to be entirely recuperated by the opening of the spring season of racing here. Jockey Fred Paul, also of this city, will not be able to leave the hospital at El Paso for about ten days.

John Miller left here for New York today with a carload of horses, two of which were the two-year-old colts recently purchased by E. W. Heffner of Sheepshead Bay, the half-brother to Highball and the son of Ornament and Algie M.

James Oneill today sold his highly tried two-year-old colt by Mazagan to Mode Nicoll. Mr. Oneill, to whom D. C. Cottle gave John Griffin II. when he broke down here last April, says that the veteran campaigner has recovered since he has been running out and he believes he may again stand training.

HALF-MILERS MAY NOT USE DATES.

Baltimore, Md., February 19.—Racing dates have been assigned Gentlemen's Driving Park, Prospect Park and Timonium by the Baltimore County Racing Commission, but just what use the three half-mile ovals will make of the assignments is at the present time an open question. Secretary Ellis, of the Gentlemen's Driving Park, asserts that unless the commission allows an open book, the runners will not race around the track over which he has supervision, while Asa B. Gardiner, of Timonium, is equally as positive. Henry A. Brehm, president of Prospect Park Fair and Racing Association is undecided.

NOTES OF THE FOREIGN TURF.

W. Earl, a rider of skill, will probably ride Highbridge in the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase.

Herbert Toon, the well-known jockey, has engaged to ride in Denmark this year for Herr D. Juergensen. Toon, prior to his return to England in 1905, was the stable jockey for some years in Germany first for Freiherr E. von Oppenheim, and then for E. N Arnull's establishment.

It is stated by the Vienna "Allgemeine Sport Zeitung" that Herr Franz Bartosch, chief veterinary surgeon in the Austrian Army, has definitely decided to send his Grand National candidate, Jamagata, to England to take part in the big steeplechase, and that he will ride him himself.

A feature of the racing in Australia last year was the success of imported horses in handicaps, but it must be admitted, says the "Australasian," that handicappers have been very kind to the American brand. The practice of buying low-priced English youngsters in England and bringing them to Australia to race is becoming very popular, and now Americans have come into vogue.

The Australian jockey, B. Carslake, who formerly rode in England, has been highly successful since he migrated to Austria-Hungary. From 1906 to the present time, says the Hungarian paper "Vadasz es Versenylap," Carslake has won 388 races out of a total number of 1,773 mounts. This gives him the excellent winning average of almost 22 per cent. In addition he has been second on 311 occasions.

KING GEORGE TO SEE THE JUMPERS.

We are in a position to state that King George has informed Lord Derby of his intention to visit Aintree to witness the race for the Grand National. His Majesty will be the guest of Lord Derby, at Knowsley.

The gratifying announcement will give the greatest satisfaction to all classes of sportsmen throughout the kingdom, for the presence of his majesty will give distinction to the meeting. It is, moreover, all the more welcome in view of the statements so often made that King George has no partiality for racing, and can be taken as convincing proof that these statements are incorrect.—London Sporting Life.

Winner—B. g, by Canopus—Trim (trained by L. W. Hicks).

Went to post at 4:42. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. CANTEM, close up from the start, drew into the lead when entering the homestretch and, coming on fast, was going away at the finish. FLYING ran well, but was forced back on the last turn and had to come around on the outside in the final quarter and come wide in the final eighth. GOLDEN AGNES was crowded and forced to be taken up when coming out of the chute and made a game challenge in the homestretch, but finally tired. WADSWORTH II. moved up when an eighth out, then fell back. ROBERTA showed the most early speed, but quit badly in the stretch racing.

Overweights—Cantem, 3 pounds; Golden Agnes, 3; Wadsworth II., 3; Roberta, 1.
